

Some way!
 Must show us all the way!
 And as we lay your fine bodies down to sleep!
 So very deep . . .
 So down to rest, we pray to our Lord God to all of these to bless . . .
 Let now our courage somehow crest . . .
 Give us the strength, to but so take just one more step!
 All in our faith this day . . .
 All in our gravest of all pain, so very deep!
 For one of America's very best, and his most beloved daughters oh so very sweet!
 As upon all of our faces our most swollen tears, we now so weep!
 Our faith this day . . .
 Must somehow, show us all the way!
 From such heartache, and such death!
 The way to hope and faith, so to our hearts
 to bless!
 The same kind of faith that which so led,
 this fine hero off towards death!
 Who so left his greatest loves of all,
 to go off to war, to so answer that most noble of all calls!
 That call to faith and honor, and so death,
 that which so stands above all else, no less!
 Armed, but with only his fine faith . . .
 which so let him march off to war, him so led!
 As he walked through that valley of death,
 as his loved ones at home cried and prayed!
 As a most magnificent member of The Special Forces yet . . .
 7 tours no less!
 As Freedom Fighter, was but his most heroic course so stepped!
 And came back home to such a wonderful family . . .
 a wife and two beautiful little daughters, to be so blessed!
 Oh it's not fair, please Lord God but hear our prayers!
 How much more pain, can but one family so bear?
 Let somehow this pain give way from here . . .
 But, some answers to some questions can only be found but in our faith!
 So listen closely on the wind . . .
 Can you but not so hear our Lord from up above so then . . .
 As when there comes a gentle rain,
 all in your heartache, all in his love to so
 ease your pain . . .
 And you his lovely wife, must somehow let your soul burn bright . . .
 And for you and them somehow so carry on this night!
 And sometime into the future start a new life!
 And you his son, as thy will be done!
 Will grow up to be, such a fine man as he . . .
 For you have his heart you indeed!
 In you, him we will always see!
 For this you must believe!
 For a child not to live its full life!
 Is but the greatest of all curses, that which does not seem right!
 But, take comfort on this night!
 For these children lie in our Lord's arms,
 with smiles so very bright!
 For Heaven, don't we all pray for such the sight?
 So hush little babies, and don't you cry . . .
 For you are up with our Lord on high!
 And your Father is right there, all by your side . . .
 In The Army of our Lord, this very night!
 And one day too,
 your Mother and your Grandparents . . .
 My children, will so rise all to meet you!
 As they wipe those tears from their eyes . . .
 All because of their faith this day, so very deep down inside . . .
 Our faith this day!
 Is but the only way . . .
 To Heaven we shall all so rise!

And now as we lay them down to sleep!
 Daddy, and his little girls all in our souls we will so keep!
 As all in our hearts of love, now so buried so very deep!
 As on this day, because of all of this heartache we now so weep!
 And for them, and us . . . Our Faith This Day, we all shall keep! Amen!

FOURTH ANNUAL NATIONAL ASSO- CIATION OF CHAIN DRUG STORES RxIMPACT DAY ON CAP- ITOL HILL

HON. LEE TERRY

OF NEBRASKA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 21, 2012

Mr. TERRY. Mr. Speaker, this week is the Fourth Annual National Association of Chain Drug Stores RxIMPACT Day on Capitol Hill, where we recognize the pharmacy's contribution to the health care system. Hundreds of representatives from the pharmacy community—including practicing pharmacists, pharmacy school faculty and students, state pharmacy leaders, and pharmacy company executives—will visit Capitol Hill to share their views about the importance of supporting legislation that protects access to neighborhood pharmacies and utilizes pharmacists to improve the quality of care and reduce the cost of health care.

Pharmacists are the nation's most accessible healthcare providers, and are important providers in communities across America. Pharmacists serve an important role in our health care system as they help improve quality and lower health care costs. For over a century, they have made a difference in the lives of my fellow citizens in Nebraska, as well as Americans throughout the nation.

Pharmacists received specialized educational training that allows them to play a major role in our health care system. These important services include medication therapy management, disease state management, immunizations, and healthcare screenings. Pharmacists are also uniquely qualified to educate and help patients manage their medications, which is extremely important to helping keep our population healthy and control costs.

On this day, I hope you will join me in celebrating the value of pharmacy and support efforts to protect access to neighborhood pharmacies.

IN OPPOSITION OF H.R. 3606—THE JUMPSTART OUR BUSINESS STARTUPS ACT

HON. JANICE D. SCHAKOWSKY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 21, 2012

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Mr. Speaker, on March 8, I voted against H.R. 3606, the Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act. H.R. 3606 has the admirable goal of increasing access to capital for small businesses, a goal that I strongly support. Unfortunately, I cannot support the legislation because, at the same time that it seeks to help small businesses, it takes away critical protections for investors.

In the wake of the Enron scandal, Congress acted to improve corporate transparency and give potential investors—particularly small investors—access to the information they need to make sound financial decisions. H.R. 3606 eliminates many of those provisions and, by doing so, leaves unsophisticated investors vulnerable. We can and should promote the interests of American entrepreneurs and small business owners without taking away recently passed rights for small investors. It is the wrong medicine for American small business growth.

The bill would give new companies up to five years to raise money from the public, eliminating the current requirements that an assessment of the soundness of the company's internal controls be included as part of the financial statement audit and made available to investors. That allows companies to raise money from unsophisticated investors without reasonable oversight of a company's operations.

It would enable crowd-funding, mass solicitations to investors who will now lack basic information about a company's financial soundness, a practice that is not currently allowed.

H.R. 3606 would increase the amount of capital that companies can raise from the public without triggering the full reporting and other obligations that are required under current law. That reporting includes compensation—including golden parachute compensation—of executives, making it incredibly difficult for even sophisticated shareholders to understand the status of their investment. In addition, it eliminates the Dodd-Frank requirement that shareholders approve compensation packages for emerging growth companies.

The JOBS Act would promote uncertainty, undermine capital markets, and therefore increase the cost of capital for the same small businesses it is meant to help. It would put us on a return course toward laissez-faire economics that previously led to the collapse of enormous companies to the economic ruin of their employees and investors. It is for these reasons that H.R. 3606 is opposed by the Council of Institutional Investors, the Consumer Federation of America, AARP, Americans for Financial Reform, the North American Security Administrators Association, and other consumer and investor organizations.

I urge my colleagues in the Senate to consider the ramifications of this legislation if it comes up for consideration.
